to publish any news of or comments upon the strikes.

STRIKERS RETURNING TO WORK. The Official Messenger to-day says that would have to be permitted before very many strikers returned to work yester-

The Council of the Institute of Mines of the University of St. Petersburg adopted a resolution to-day expressing deep regret at of study impossible. It tenders the sympathy of the council to the relatives of wreaths upon the coffins of the two stusage of the resolution.

The Council of the Institute of Civil Engihas been postponed till Feb. 28.

burg struck work to-day. offices were guarded by the police during positive can be affirmed on this point. the night. No troops were to be seen upon the streets to-day.

LIBERAL MEASURES AGREED ON. The Czar gave a luncheon to-day at Tsarskoe-Selo in honor of the birthday of Emperor William. The guests included the German Ambassador, the Czarina, the Dowager Empress, M. de Witte, President ister of Foreign Affairs. council was held at Tsarskoe-Selo. prevailed over the arguments of the reconciliatory measures were agreed upon.

The zemstvo of Nijni Novgorod adopted a resolution yesterday protesting against the slaughter in St. Petersburg. As soon as the adoption of the resolution became known here an order was telegraphed to the Governor to arrest every member of the zemstvo, which was done last night, the victims being seized from their beds and taken to the fortress

INCENDIABISM PEARED.

It is feared that incendiarism, which has tion of work will be prevented.

PARIS. Jan. 27 .- The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris says that M. Rouvier had finished the subject was notwithstanding the apparent quiet and resumption of business there are signs of re- Radicals again shouted: newed activity of a serious character on the part of the strikers. Fires, evidently of an | bandit! incendiary origin, have occurred in several workshops and mills.

THE DEAD AT RIGA.

Riga, Russia, Jan. 27 .- It has been ascertained at the hospitals that two women and twenty-nine men were killed and thirtyseven civilians and eight soldiers wounded demonstrators and the troops. The soldiers' wounds were caused by revolver

Labor agents from Riga have organized a strike at Mitau, the capital of Courland. | cried: Proops have been summoned to the spot. There has been no encounter thus far. The men are parading through the town and distributing proclamations.

LONDON, Jan. 28.-The St. Petersburg to France's friends abroad. correspondent of the Telegraph says he has a number of workmen entered the city able success. The fighting continued until sacre were exaggerated. He concluded: night and was going on when the witness He declared there had been great slaughter. There was terrible confusion

HUNDREDS HILLED IN POLAND. BEBLIN, Jan. 27 .- A newspaper here says that fighting was renewed at Radom, Rus-Poland, yesterday. In one conflict eix officers, thirty-eight soldiers and more than a hundred workmen were killed and hundreds were wounded.

In another fight fifty of the rioters were killed, and many on both sides were wounded. The Cossacks shot at sight anybody found on the streets at night.

The Vossische Zeitung savs the police raided a socialistic meeting at Lodz. Russian Poland, to-day. A fight resulted and many persons were killed and wounded MOTEMENT SPREADS AT MOSCOW.

Moscow, Jan. 2 .- Notwithstanding the reassuring official reports that are issued the situation here does not improve. The men in nineteen more factories struck work vesterday. Last night passed quietly. The City Prefect has issued a proclamation stating that the demands of the strikers will be investigated, so that the authorities may be satisfied that they are within the legal limits, but the condition is made that the men shall first resume work.

PARIS, Jan. 27 .- A despatch from St. Petersburg to the Petit Journal says that 12,000 workmen from Ivanovo and Voznesensk are reported to be marching upon Moscow. It appears that there are not enough troops in the Moscow district to repress serious disturbances. WARSAW, Jan. 27.- A strike was begun to-day in Volsk, a suburb of the city, in which there are many factories. The workmen have made no disturbance. There were two fights between strikers and soldiers here to-day. There was some firing, but the casualties are unknown.

TROUBLE ENDED, SAYS TREPOFF. LONDON, Jan. 28 .- M. Lopoukhin, director of the St. Petersburg police, has telegraphed to the Express the text of Gen. Trepoff's order, which has been already cabled. He reiterated that the trouble in St. Petersburg is ended. He adds that affairs at Moscow are not at all threatening. There are 17,300 strikers there, but there have been no collisions with the troops. Only once were the Cossacks obliged to use force in dispersing a crowd. Nobody was killed or wounded. The strikes at Kieff, Vilna, Kevno, Riga, Reval, Libau and Saratoff are only partial. M. Lopoukhin concludes by stating that the principal ringleaders of the disturbances are now under

WAGONLOADS OF DEAD.

A despatch to the Daily Mail from St. Petersburg says that sixteen wagonloads of dead from the hospitals were sent from the Nicolaivski station Friday to a cemetery outside the city.

A high official of the Ministry of the Interior told the correspondent that, in view of the fact that the rising is now suppressed, the Government did not wish to enforce severe measures, but a large number of well known persons had been so seriously compromised that they must be imprisoned The newspapers have been forbidden for life or deported. He added that the Government recognized that a constitution could not be long withheld. Participation of the people in the affairs of the country day. The performances in the theatres, it says, were conducted last night as usual. Greatly Upset by the Battery Episode -Later Events Kept From Him.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY as Laxutive Bromo Quinine Tablets. All drug-ts refund the money if it falls to cure. E. W. ove's signature is on each box. 25c.—Ade.

Apecial Cable Despatch to THE SUN. PARIS, Jan. 27.-The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Petit Parisien says that, the recent terrible events, and declaring although the Czar publicly displayed comthat it regards a continuation of the course | plete sang froid when a loaded cannon was fired at the Winter Palace last week Thursday, he was in reality greatly upset. It was those who were killed, and promises to the first time the Emperor had doubted the have prayers said for the dead and to lay loyalty of his officers and soldiers. On returning to his private apartments he is said dents of the institute who were killed on to have given way to despair. In the midst Sunday. The institute voted to acquaint of the assembled Imperial family he made the Minister of Agriculture with the pas- several of the Grand Dukes swear upon ikons to tell him the truth.

As the result of his inquiry into the incineers adopted similar declarations. Regis- | dent, two officers of the battery were artration at the university for the next term | rested. Then it was decided that the Czar should go to Tsarskoe-Selo to recover from All the druggists' assistante in St. Peters- | the shock. There, on account of his condition, it was thought desirable that his Maj-Nearly all the compositors resumed esty should be spared the knowledge of the work to-day. The Imperial Messenger, agitation that preceded the events of Sunthe Journal of Trade and Industry, the day. Who it was in his place that took the Russky Invalid, and the Journal of St. Pe- decisions which were acted upon in dealing teraburg were published this morning. Their with the emergency is doubtful, and nothing

REFUGE FOR CZARINA. Imperial Villa at Livadia Being Prepared

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Jan. 28 .- A despatch to the Standard from Odessa says it is reported

for Her and the Children.

of the Council, and Count Lamsdorff, Minprepared for the Czarina and her children. The danger of trouble in Odessa is appar-The Czar proposed the only toast, one to ently passed for the present. The Governor shops and obtained the men's promise to guns reported this evening that liberal views remain quiet. Nevertheless, he was everywhere assured that the St. Petersburg actionaries of the council, and that several butcheries would be avenged sooner or later.

FRANCE FAITHFUL TO RUSSIA, Says the Premier, While Extremists Denounce Czar as Assassin.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Paris, Jan. 27 .- In the Chamber of Deputies to-day Premier Rouvier announced that France would remain faithful to her alliance with Russia.

The Prime Minister's statement was immediately greeted with angry shouts from become a feature of the strike situation, the extreme left of "Down with the Czar!" will be continued in which case a resump- "Death to the assassin!" M. Doumer, President of the Chamber, intervened and temporarily calmed the Chamber, but when raised again, whereupon the Socialists and

Down with the Czar, the assassin and

M. Delcassé, Minister of Foreign Affairs, thereupon ascended the tribune and began earnestly to protest for the good renown of France. He got no further. The Socialists rose, howling "Murderer!" and other opprobrious terms for seven minutes. When there was a lull M. Delcassé gravely in yesterday's encounter between the protested. M. Jules Coutant, a Socialist, shouted:

"The Czar is an assassin!" M. Delcassé again protested against the use of such language. M. Rovanet

"It is the language of humanity." M. Delcassé retorted: "It is language which will weigh heavily upon those who have used it, who will thereby cause grief

Amid frequent interruptions, M. Delcassé seen a man from Riga who told him that while deploring the events and pitying the victims, challenged the objectors on from two sides Thursday armed with the ground that they did not have the

"You cannot forget that the country in has given France security, enabling her hurricane. to undertake, pursue and realize international accords which you cannot refuse to

This declaration called forth hearty applause from all the members but the extremista.

HONOR PLOTTERS AGAINST CZAR.

Mass Meeting in Memory of Poles Stirred by Recent Outbreak. A big mass meeting and concert in mem ory of four Poles who were hanged in Poland in 1886 was held last night at 9 Second avenue. The hall was packed to overflowing by men and women, who cheered wildly every time the strife in St. Petersburg was mentioned. Speeches were made in Polish, Russian, Yiddish and English. The four men, designated at the meeting as martyrs, were Kunick, Baudowski, Pietvuseash and Osowsky, Pictures of Kunick and Baudowski, draped in black, were on the stage last night. The men were hanged for taking part in a plot against the Czar.

against the Czar.

Alexander Dembschi, Dr. Getzlogski, Alexander Yonnis and Lawyer Stollock were the speakers. They denounced the Czar's Government and appealed for funds to help carry on the revolt and to release prisoners in Siberia. Another meeting was held at 208 East Broadway under the auspices of the Liberal Arts Society. If followed the regular weekly meeting. Speeches were made in Yiddish and English. There was a big crowd present.

The speakers were Prof. Robert E. Ely and Dr. Robinsky, who talked about the revolutionary movement in Russia. At the close of the meeting the audience sang the Russian Marseillaise composed by Platom Broumoff, the founder of the society.

Representatives of the New York Society of Friends of Russian Freedom and of the United Russian Payolutionary Co.

Inited Russian Revolutionary Conference will hold their mass meeting to invoke aid for the victims of the St. Petersburg outreak on Sunday night at the Academy of Music, Fourteenth street and Irving place
The Rev. Minot J. Savage, who is president of the New York Society of Friends of Russian Freedom, will preside. Among those who have accepted invitations to address the meeting are the Rev. Percy Grant, Ernest H. Crosby, John Martin, Robert Erskine Ely and H. Montague Don-ner, a native of Finland.

RUSSIAN CALL FOR HELP. Jewish Newspaper Receives Appeal and

News From St. Petersburg. The Jewish Daily Forward received three cable despatches from St. Petersburg yesterday. The foreign committee of the Social Democratic party in St. Petersburg and other Russian cities sent this:

Our party led the revolutionary move-ment entirely in the district of Piborg, old St. Petersburg, and the Vassili Island. Father (apon is connected with and strongly influenced by our organization in the Narva (St. Petersburg) district On Sunday eight companies of a regiment refused to shoot at the Social Democrats.

our party took possession of a printing and openly printed revolutionary A despatch from the Bund, the Jewish division of the Social Democra's read:

Uprising growing in western districts.

Another committee sent this: Open an emergency fund. Fight is blaz-

BIG BATTLE STILL RAGING,

BOTH SIDES REPORTED TO HAVE LOST HEAVILY.

Kuropatkin Says He Has Captured Two Places-The Most Violent Attack Is on the Japanese Centre-Russians Lose Guns Cavairy Raid Planned.

BERLIN, Jan. 27.-The Lokalanzeiger prints a despatch from Mukden saying that a great battle has been raging on the Sha River since Thursday. Both sides have

The most violent attack is being made by the Russians on the Japanese centre. St. Petersburg, Jan. 27 .- Gen. Kuropatkin, in a despatch dated Wednesday, telegraphs that he has taken the offensive on his right. In a despatch dated vesterday he

"We occupied Khailatosa without firing a shot, bayoneting the Japanese garrison. We also carried Kheigutaya, which was bravely defended. Our left was attacked by the enemy, who were repulsed. Another detachment, directed against the enemy's flank, near Hindkecheng, forced the Japanese to retire. We captured 200

Gen. Kuropatkin adds that prior to the capture of Kheigutaya the Russians captured 100 prisoners. Later the Russians occupied the village of Tehitaitse, losing fifty killed and wounded. Yesterday the Russians attacked Shahopu and occupied the enemy's intrenchments. The Japanese tried to dislodge them, but were repulsed. There was desperate fighting vesterday at Sandepu, a large village, in which the Japanese were strongly intrenched. The defences were sapped and the village entered at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Rome, Jan. 27.-An undated telegram that the imperial villa at Livadia is being from the headquarters of Gen. Kuroki. who commands the right wing of the Japanese army, says that the Japanese have driven back the Russians who crossed the the health of the Kaiser. Later a special personally visited all the mills and work- Hun River, and have captured four field

> Toxio, Jan. 27 .- Experts differ as to whether the advance of Gen. Kuropatkin's left indicates that he is going to attempt a turning movement through the mountain districts toward the Corean frontier, or whether it is to divert attention from a heavy advance of cavalry west of the Liao River, with the purpose of repeating the raid on Yinkow upon a larger scale and cutting the Japanese communications in that direction. In either case, the Russians would depend upon the almost permanent fortifications of Mukden to hold their

CHICAGO, Jan. 27 .- The Daily News tonight publishes a cablegram from its correspondent with Gen. Kuropatkin's army outside Mukden, dated vesterday, which

"Kuropatkin began his long expected attack on Oyama's position yesterday The engagement was heralded by terrific bombardment from the strong batteries massed in the centre of the Russian lines. 'Gradually the fire was taken up by the was soon engaged. The cannonading was terriflo. Its reverberations were felt in "Under cover of this heavy fire the Russian troops advanced to the attack. They showed great enthusiasm and pressed the entire Russian front, and every battery assault with remarkable vigor. The men suffered badly from the weather, which is intensely cold, the thermometer showing several degrees below zero. The attack was made in the midst of a blinding snowstorm.

"The Japanese were quick in their answer to the Russian advance."

BALTIC FLEET DAMAGED? Alarming Reports Reach Sevastopol of Destruction Wrought by a Hurricane.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. London, Jan. 28 .- A despatch to the rifies. The troops attacked the workmen, facts on which to base an impartial judg-who defended themselves with considerment, implying that the stories of the masin naval circles that the Admiralty has received alarming intelligence respecting Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet, which is question is our ally and that the alliance said to have been seriously damaged in a the board

JAP NAVY PREPARING.

Departure of High Admirals Thought to Presage Active Operations. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Tokio, Jan. 27 .- The departure of Admirals Kamimura, Togo and Fushimi and other officers and men gives rise to the conjecture that a stage of active naval operations is about to be entered upon.

ON ODELL AND HIS PROMISES. Chairman Halpin and Others Let Off a Little Laudation and Advice. A dinner in honor of the Republican district was given at the Hotel Vendome last night by Congressman-elect Herbert Parsons, Senator Elsberg, Assemblymanelect George B. Agnew, George W. Mor-

Leader James W. Perry, Leader William room at the Republican Club by a cold. William Halpin, chairman of the county committee, offered these remarks:

"The county organization of to-day is a pened he fell unconscious. machine of a different kind from the ones of previous years. It is not used solely for the benefit of the persons connected with it

He also said that the nomination and election of M. Linn Bruce mean that the county organization will be considered in future by the State organization.

Congressman-elect Parsons admitted that, while the majorities in some of the election districts in the Twenty-seventh fell off in the last election, this was due "to circumstances over which the captains had no control." Mr. Parsons did not expatiate on what these circumstances were. He invited the captains him up when they went to Washington. Senator Eisberg expressed the opinic that the value of Odell's leadership w. in the fact that he was the first to appreciate the true sentiment of the people of New York city and that he had promised so far as was possible that this sentiment should get expression in practical results."

Armitage Matthews, secretary of the county committee, said he hoped and prayed that the question on which the next mayoralty campaign would be fought out would not be whether a glass of beer could be hoped on the country to sunday at the country to sunday a sould not be whether b glass of beer could be bought on Sunday or not.

Gherardi Davis said he did not want to roast the Police Department. Commis-sioner McAdoo and his associates in the department were getting enough of that department were getting enough of that from other sources.

"But," said Mr. Davis, "don't delude yourself into the belief that this cry of reform against the Police Department is going to last till November. They are very busy down in Fourteenth street and have taken hald of the quartien fairly and source!" hold of the question fairly and squarely."

It was Mr. Davis's opinion that the Republicans would have to get some other issue for the November campaign if they wanted allow one wanted.

About 100 attended the dinner. A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES. liching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles.
Your druggist will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure you in 6 to 14 days. Soc.—Ade PANIC ON A FERRYBOAT.

Woman Who Had Been in a Smallpox Hospital Dies on Her Way Home

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27 .- Passengers on a ferryboat coming from Camden were paniostricken to-day when Mary Spencer. a negro, who had been in the Camden Municipal Hospital for four weeks, suffering from smallpox, died on the way to the city. The woman had been discharged from the institution, and was being brought to this city by her brother-in-law. James Cassidy. She was wheeled to the ferryboat in a rolling

Shortly after the boat left the Camden side of the Delaware the woman's head dropped forward. A minute later Cassidy noticed that she was dead. When the passengers discovered that the woman had been suffering from smallpox they shrank away. When the boat touched the dock they sprang ashore and hurried Meanwhile word had been sent to Philadelphia health bureau. A corps of physicians were sent to the ferryhouse and about sixty persons who had boarded the boat for the return trip were compelled to submit to vaccination. The crew was also vaccinated.

The ferryhouse and the ferryboat were placed under quarantine and traffic was not resumed until midnight, after both the boat and the ferryhouse were thoroughly furnigated. The body of the dead woman was sent to the municipal hospital mortuary. and Cassidy will be detained for several days at the institution.

BETHLEHEM STEEL'S FUTURE. Directors Vote to Spend About $5,000,000 in Improving the Plant.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27 .- The sum of $5,000,000 is to be expended by the Bethlehem Steel Company in improving and enarging the plant at Bethlehem this year. This fact was admitted to-day by Edwin M. McIlwain, president of the company, after a meeting of the board of directors held here to-day.

From what can be learned the idea of enlarging the plant is Charles M. Schwab's and its details were worked out under his supervision. The plan is to increase the plant's capacity for making guns and gun carriages and it is also said that the company will enter on the manufacture of crucible steel, high grade castings and steel At the close of the stockholders' meeting the following directors were chosen: Edward M. McIlvain, Archibald Johnston, A. E. Borie, Henry S. Snyder, all of Bethlehem; Joseph E. Schwab, Max Pam and Charles M. Schwab of New York. The stockholders' meeting was followed

y a meeting of the board, at which these officers were chosen: Edward M. McIlvain, president: Adolph E. Borie, vice-president: Henry S. Snyder, secretary and treasurer; Archibald Johnston, general superintend-LOVES OTHER WOMAN'S BABY. Board Unpaid, Too-Mother Consents to Let Her Have It While Court Inquires.

435 East Fifteenth street, went to the York- seat ville police court yesterday in response to a summons obtained by Mrs. Nellie McFadden of 622 East Twelfth street. Mrs. McFadden complained that Mrs. Graeber had possession of her baby, Walter, and refused to surrender him. Mrs. Graeber carried the baby in her arms and sat near the mother while waiting for the case to

According to the declarations of the women to Magistrate Whitman, the baby in question is 18 months old. The com-plainant's husband, Bernard McFadden, is a driver, who became ill six months ago and lost his job. His wife's health was also poor, and the baby was given to Mrs. Graeber, whose husband, Otto, is a saloon-Graeber, whose husband, Otto, is a saloon-keeper, to board at the rate of $2 a week. The mother was unable to pay the board, and at the end of a month took the baby In a short time she again left the child payment of its board. A week ago the mother wanted her child. Mrs. Graeber wanted to keep it, and set up the claim that the board bill had not been paid. The mother said she was unable to pay the bill mother said she was that to pay the thin at present, but would do so later. Mrs. Graeber insisted upon keeping the little boy, saying that he was better off with her. Tears filled her eyes as she told the Magistrate of her strong affection for the other woman's child. Mrs. McFadden also wept as she told of the longing to have her baby "If you insist upon it I must order the baby restored to you," the Magistrate said to the mother. "The baby seems to be well taken care of, and I would suggest that you eave it with its present guardian until I make an investigation.

The mother consented, and the Magistrate instructed Agent O'Connor of the Children's society to look into the matter.

THAWED GAS METER TOO MUCH captains of the Twenty-seventh Assembly Burchell Nearly Lost His Life-Rescuer and 2 Women in Bad Way, Too.

A gas meter in the basement of a tenement at 210 Eighth avenue wouldn't work last night, because it had frozen. gan, Superintendent of Elections; ex- tenants wanted light, and John Burchell one of them, volunteered to thaw out the Wilson and others. Chairman Odell meter. With a supply of hot water and was expected there, but sent his regrets. many rags he descended into the basement It was said that he was confined to his and began operations. He succeeded, but in doing so opened up a leak in the supply pipe. Gas escaped all over the place, and before Burchell realized what had hap-

The fumes spread up the stairs, filling the rooms on the second and third floors. Several men made their way into the basebut in the interest of the whole people of ment and dragged Burchell out to the sidewalk. Meanwhile the gasthad got in its work on the upper floor, and three persons were overcome. A policeman who heard of the trouble summoned an ambulance rom the New York Hospital, and Dr. Burughs, who responded, attended to all hands.

Mary Connors, living on the second floor, was in such bad shape that it was necessary to remove her to the hospital. Mercedes Devine, a nineteen-year-old Danish girl, and Burchell were revived on e sidewalk. William Diehl, who went the assistance of the latter, didn't wait for the ambulance, but made for the West Twentieth street police station, two blocks away. He got as far as the steps and col-Another ambulance surgeon succeeded in bringing him around.

The leak was finally plugged up by an employee of the gas company and the tenants were able to return to their rooms. A rumor that the meter had blown up and that many had been killed caused an enormous crowd to collect.

Lable

of old San Domingo Mahogany one example from the hundreds upon hundreds of pieces that go to make up our unequalled display of classic reproductions. Moderate prices and certainty of excellence are the two chief features here.

Schmitt Brothers, 40 East 23d Street.

HIT BY MORSE CASE

Continued from First Page.

sensational divorce cases, usually appear ing as counsel for the woman Both Justice Fursman and Mr. Hummel had been notified that it would save them trouble if they were in Part I. of General Sessions at 1 o'clock yesterday afterno The Grand Jury usually reports a few minutes after 1 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the jurymen were about fifteen minutes late. When they came in the foreman, Arthur T. Sullivan, handed up a batch of indictments. The op paper was the blanket indictment in the Dodge-Morse case. A few minutes later in came Mr. Fursman, ex-Judge Herrick at his elbow. Mr. Fursman is now clean shaven; he recently shaved off his whisker and mustache.

Assistant District Attorneys Rand and Garvan, who for a month have been doing almost nothing else but handling the Dodge-Morse case, were waiting. Mr. Herrick shook hands cordially with both of them, then with Judge McMahon.

FURSMAN TO THE BAR. Judge McMahon stopped sentencing prisoners for petty offences and Clerk Edward Cowing said: "Edgar L. Fursman to the bar."

Judge Fursman had taken a seat inside of the railing. He was not arraigned at ne bar where prisoners ordinarily stand. Ex-Judge Herrick rose 'I appear for the defendant," he said.

"I ask time for an inspection of the indictment, or to make a demurrer or any other motions that may be necessary." "How long do you want, Judge Herrick?

"A little longer than that, I think," said Judge Herrick. Mr. Rand suggested ten days, and Judge Herrick said that would be agreeable

asked Judge McMahon. "Will next Monday

"Now as to the question of ball?" inquired Judge Herrick. "I would suggest," said Mr. Rand pleasantly, "that bail is not needed. I am willing that the defendant should be paroled in the custody of his counsel."

"Granted," said Judge McMahon. "I will be here," said Justice Fursman, standing up; "you may be sure of that.

Justice Fursman had a bondsman ready. He was in Troy on Thursday night when he was notified that he was wanted. It was said vesterday that the ex-Justice took a milk train early yesterday morning to get here on time. He and Judge Herrick immediately left court, refusing to make any statement.

HUMMEL UP ON TWO COUNTS. Mr. Rand said he expected another defendant. Judge McMahon went right along imposing sentences as fast as prisoners were arraigned before him. Then in came Abe Hummel. He wore a long coat with an astrakhan collar. Like Judge Fursman, he walked inside of the rail. Mr. Nicoll and John D. Lindsay accompanied him. Mr. Mrs. Christina Graeber, who lives at Hummel yanked off his coat and took a you," said Mr. Rand. "Two of the indictments are for subornation of perjury and one for conspiracy. Now, your Honor, may the defendant now plead to these indictments?" Mr. Nicoll said he would like to look at the indictments. Mr. Rand said he was willing, but added: "There are two conflicting statutes. One gives the right to see the indictments. The other says that nothing should be given out that would interfere with the ends of These indictments charge suborjustice. ation of perjury and conspiracy. Five or six other persons are named in the indicthis client's name was used. Mr. Nicoll agreed to that and Judge McMahon fixed Feb. 7 for Mr. Hummel to plead.

HE GOES WITHOUT BALL. *As to bail," said Mr. Rand, "I suggest that $5,000 be fixed on each of the perjury indictments and $2,500 on the conspiracy

"I think I will parole Mr. Hummel in the ustody of his counsel," said Judge Mr. Hummel put on his coat. At his side was Leo Schiesinger, president of the Mechanics' and Traders' Bank, who was ready to give bail.

"Well, I didn't need you, Leo," said Abe.
'No you didn't, Abe," said Mr. Schlesinger. "but I was ready."

but I was ready."

In court were also Abe Kaffenburgh of the firm of Howe & Hummel and John T.

Little of the defunct law firm of Fursman,

Little & Schwarzkopf. MAIN CHARGE IS CONSPIRACY. No one in the District Attorney's office would make known the contents of the indictments on the ground that Steinhardt and Bracken had not then been arrested. It was learned, however, that the subornation of perjury charge against Messrs. Hummel and Steinbardt is based on the false affidavit made by Dodge when he instituted proceedings to have the divorce obtained by his wife set aside on the ground that he had not been served with notice of

In a general way the conspiracy indict-In a general way the conspiracy indict-ment is understood to charge everybody named with a general understanding to pervert the ends of justice in the civil pro-ceedings growing out of the Morse divorce

Within a few days counsel either for ex-Justice Fursman or Mr. Hummel will make a motion to inspect the Grand Jury minutes and quash the indictments. This will bring the whole case up for review before bring the whole case up for review before the Judge who is then sitting in Part I. of General Sessions. Counsel for one of the defendants seemed to feel yesterday that there was a good chance of the indictments THE REMARKABLE MORSE-DODGE TANGLE.

Leading up to these five indictments is the most complicated matrimonial tangle perhaps that the courts of this or any other State have ever had to deal with. Charles F. Dodge, a Pullman car porter, married Clemence Cowles in San Francisco in 1877. It was not a happy union, and in 1897 Mrs. Morse began suit for divorce. She had left her husband and after running a beautiful or the property of the suit o left her husband and after running a board-ing house for a while had become the house-keeper for C. W. Morse, and the guardian of his children by his dead wife.

American Ice Company.

Mr. Morse's fortune grew. Eight years later Dodge appeared and began proceedings to have the divorce obtained by his wife set aside. His counsel were Howe & Hummel, Mr. Hummel being his active representative. Dodge swore that he had never been served in the div active representative. Dougs were that he had never been served in the divorce suit brought by his wife and therefore his wife was not entitled to the divorce she obtained from him. He testified at the hearing before Referee Hall that he had never been served. The divorce was annulled.

William A. Sweetser, who had been seen.

annulled.

William A. Sweetser, who had been counsel for Mrs. Dodge in the divorce proceedings, was considerably wrought up by the allegations in this annulment proceeding. He searched among the gations in this annulment proceeding He searched among the papers of Mortimer A. Ruger (then dead), who had appeared for Dodge in the divorce suit, and he found a letter from Dodge showing that Dodge a letter from Dodge showing that Dodge had been served in the suit. Sweetser made the fact known.

Mrs. Morse at once began an action to have the annulment of the divorce vacated. She was represented by ex-Justice Fursman, and the Appellate Division decided that she had been lawfully divorced from Dodge. had been lawfully divorced tree had had But although; Mrs. Dodge-Morse had had

SALE ENDS TO-DAY

In a storm such as New York has just passed through the resources of the home are taxed to the utmost for entertainment. In every home where there is a Pianola there is always at hand an unfailing source of delightful recreation not only in stormy weather but during the long Winter evenings and whenever there are guests to entertain. The Pianola is as new as its newest piece of music.

PIANOLA SALE

A Rare Opportunity to Secure Slightly Used Pianolas at a Reduction of $100 from Original Prices

THERE are doubtless many people in New York who have desired to own a Pianola, but have hesitated on account of the price which is rigidly maintained. Rather than take any less desirable instrument than the Pianolawhich is recognized throughout the world as the standard-they have thus far preferred to go without any piano-player at all.

For such people this special sale is an opportunity not to be neglected. This offering includes Pianolas which, though having seen previous use, are in perfect playing order and are in every way desirable instruments. The only reason for their having been exchanged was the desire of their owners to obtain the very latest model - the Metrostyle. At this sale you can secure for as little as $15 down a Pianola which could hardly be told from new and with the privilege of exchanging it any time within three months at the full purchase price should you decide you would prefer the Metrostyle.

$15 down and $7 a month

Every doubtful part has been replaced with a new one, cases restored when marred, and each given the same scrupulous adjustment and inspection bestowed on new Planolas before leaving the factory. In capacity to give service and pleasure they are practically new. $20 down and $8 a month

Exchanged Pianolas that have been used for some time, yet in no way worn, impaired or out of Pianolas that have seen less service, coming back in such excellent condition that but triffing working of every part.

adjustment was needed to bring them up to the standards set for new instruments. Each Pianola in this group has had just the amount of service that assures soundness and harmonious $20 down and $10 a month Group III-$200 Made up entirely of exchanged Pianolas that have seen almost no service at all. An expert could examine them in vain for evidences of previous use. Any of them might be put into new stock were it not for the company's present practice of including the Metrostyle in all

> Every Pianola in these three groups is sold subject to the same guarantee given by the manufacturers with absolutely new Pianolas.

High Grade Pianos at Exceptional Prices.

These are Uprights and Grands from the best known manufacturers, taken in exchange for the Pianola Piano. They are remarkable for their fine condition, differing in this important respect from all other offerings of used pianos elsewhere. Prices range from $125 upwards. Sales are being made to persons who had not hitherto supposed they would be content with anything short of an absolutely new piano. Purchasable on moderate monthly payments.

THE AEOLIAN CO., 362 FIII Ave., near 34th St.

er marriage to Mr. Morse annulled no gation of the case is finished further steps were taken to have the mar-riage reestablished.

DODGE'S FLIGHT AND FIGHT. After it had been decided that the Dodge After it had been decided that the Dodge divorce was lawful, Dodge was indicted by the Grand Jury. He fled to Texas, and for a whole year a bitter fight was made to keep him there, out of the jurisdiction of this State. Dodge was supplied with unlimited cash, and every court, State and Federal, in turn was appealed to to keep him from being extradited by District Attorney Jerome. Mr. Jerome has estimated that at least $80,000 was spent.

ments. However, I am ready to leave it to the Court."

Judge McMahon said he saw no reason why Mr. Nicoll shouldn't see the indictments. Mr. Rand said he had no objection if Mr. Nicoll would promise that none but the case which has finally reonduct the case which has finally resulted in indictments. LAW FIRMS SPLIT OVER THE CASE. Growing out of the Dodge-Morse case Growing out of the Dodge-Morse case there have been internal troubles in the two law firms which represented Dodge and Mrs. Morse. Last March Benjamin Steinhardt, in a famous interview, announced that Howe & Hummel were acting for Charles W. Morse and that they expected to be reimbursed by him for the monar, that was being as a second to the second the second to the second to the second to the second the second to the second to the second pected to be reimbursed by him for the money that was being spent on Dodge. Right after that Steinhardt went to a sanitarium, and it was said yesterday that he has since had nothing to do with the affairs of the firm.

The difficulties between the members of firm of Fursman, Little & Schwarzkopf the firm of Fursman, Little & Schwarzkopi resulted in the disruption of the firm. John Schwarzkopf had Mr. Fursman arrested in Troy for perjury after Mr. Fursman had had Schwarzkopf indicted for grand larceny. Both cases were dismissed.

DODGE'S CHANGE OF FRONT.

Dodge has been one of the interesting figures in the case. The minute he landed from Texas be was taken to from Texas he was taken to Police Head-quarters for a session with Mr. Jerome and Assistant District Attorney Garvan. Mr. Hummel and Bartow S. Weeks storned the doors of Police Commissioner storned the doors of Ponce Commissioner McAdoo's room, in which Dodge was, in vain to see "their client." Finally, Dodge announced, through Mr. Jerome, that Mr. Hummel was no longer his counsel and it Hummel was no longer his counsel and it was plain that he had told the authorities all he knew about the conspiracy. Since then Dodge has been living at the expense of the county in an uptown boarding house. The January Grand Jury has had the different phases of the Dodge-Morse case under investigation all month. Dodge was one of the witnesses. About a hundred were examined and several hundred pages of testimony were taken.

MORSE ON HIS WAY HERE. Mr. Morse is a passenger on the steamer Deutschland, which is due here next Tues-day. He has returned to this country from France at the request of the District Attorney, communicated to Samuel Untermyer, Mr. Morse's counsel. It was said yesterday by friends of Mr. Morse that he would be at the disposal of the District Attorney at any Mrs. Morse is also in Europe. She sailed last March. So is Mrs. Katherine Gelshenen, who sailed just before Mr. Jerome announced that he would like to see her and that a subpena was out for her. Mr. Morse is an executor of the estate of Mrs. Gelshenen's late husband and they have been very friendly. Gelshenen's late the been very friendly.

After Dodge had been indicted for perjury. District Attorney Jerome sent a communication to the grievance committee of the Bar Association calling their attention to certain circumstances of the case. A member of the grievance committee said that an investigation was made. nittee said that an investigation was made mittee said that an investigation was made, but that "nothing was done." This was after Dodge was brought back from Texas. It has been said that Mr. Jerome may take further action when the criminal investi-

You Cannot Be Trusted

to throw off a heavy cough or cold without medicine. Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar can always be trusted to cure these ills. Get it of your druggist.

Pike's Toothache Drops Cure in One Minute.

gation of the case is finished.

Justice Fursman presided in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court in this city from 1897 to 1900 inclusive. One of the principal case before him was that of Myles McDonnell, who shot George Price in a Harlem saloon. The Justice had a reputation for trying cases without unnecessary delay. He resigned on Oct. 10, 1902. While practising up the State he represented a number of railroad interests.

Mr. Hummel has been a member of the bar since 1899. He began as an office bow in the office of William F. Howe. He devoted himself to the practice of criminal law, and later made a specialty of divores cases. He also numbered among his clients many prominent members of the theatrical profession.

MARRIED.

MITCHELL-HEARNE.-On Wednesday, Jan. 25. Nettleton Hearne to Archibald Pauli Mitch DIED.

AYERS .- On Thursday, Jan. 26, Theodore Avers. in his Sist year. Funeral services at his late residence, a Frankila place, Morristown, N. J., Saturday, 2 P. M. GLATZ.-Suddenly on Friday morning, Joseph

Funeral services at his late residence, tio Clinton street, Brooklyn, Sunday at 2 o'clock, interment private. GOULD .- Suddenly, of pneumonia, on Tuesday Jan. 24, 1905. Edward Sherman Gould, son of the late Edward S. Gould and Mary F. Du Glatz, aged 62 years.

The funeral services will be held at Trinity Chan Monday morning, Jan. 30, at 10 o'clock. Rela-tives and friends are invited to attend. HALL -Suddenly, at New Haven, Conn. 27, 1905, John M. Hall, in the 64th year of his age. uneral services will be held at 23 Hillhouse av. New Haven, on Monday afternoon at 2 o'closs Interment at Willimantic, Conn KINGSBURY .- At Redlands, Cal., Friday, Jan. Henry Judson Kingsbury, son of the late Francis H. Kingsbury, of East Orange, N. J. Notice of funeral later.

MERRILL .- On Friday, Jan. 27. Horace B. Merrill

Puneral services from his late residence, 84 Glen wood av., Jersey City, Sunday, Jan. 29, at 4 P. M Interment at Enfield, N. H. MULLIN.-Edward Hemphill Mullin, suddenly, at Funeral services on Saturday, at the house, after arrival of 12:50 o'clock train from New York on the D., L. & W. Raliroad. NIVEN .- At the residence of Malcolm W. N. Montolair, N. J., Thomas H. Niven, in the 97d year of his age. Puneral services in the Pirst Presbyterian Churc on Saturday, Jan. 28, upon arrival of train leaving New York at 2:10 P. M. Kindly omit

NOTMAN .- On Friday, the 27th inst., at her rest dence, Jane Cope Notman, widow of the late Peter Notman, in the 78th year of her age Funeral services will be held at the Church of the Heights, Pierreport st., Brooklyn, on Mon-day afterneon, the 30th inst., at 2 o'clock

PRINCE .- On Friday, Jan. 27, 1903, at the residence of her son in New York city, Clara Seelest Prince, wife of Col. Frederick W. Prince of Interment at Geneva, N. Y. TAYLOR. - At Hackensack, N. J., on Jan. 26. Sarah Lovett, wife of Samuel Taylor.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, at her late residence, 372 Union st., Sunday, Jan. 29, at 2:30 P. M. Carriages will meet train leaving Pennsylvania station, Jersey City, at 1:58 P. M. OODWARD. - Suddenly, of pneumonia, on Thursday, Jan. 26, 1905, at his residence, 462 West st., George Evertson Woodward, in the

SPECIAL NOTICES.

fith year of his age.

LUXURIANT HAIR with its youthful color as-ured by using Parker's Hair Balsam. Parker's Ginger Tonic the best cough cure

PERSONALS.

WANTED—Information regarding the where abouts of Anning S. Deyo, if living, or if he be not living, proof of his death. Left his home its 2d av. Brooklyn. on July 2th, 1901. Stated that he was going to South Basin, Jersey Git Hoatman by occupation and was known among his friends as Andy Deyo. Was born in 1838. As uncie died in October, 1904, leaving him properit ARTHUR E. BOSE, Attorney, Eingston, N.

BENNER-Will be time nervy lasting lie tokays